

YMCA CAMP WABANSI

2017 Assistant Counselor (AC) Application

Program Overview

Camp Wabansi is seeking enthusiastic teens who are passionate about camp, kids, and the great outdoors to play an important role at Camp Wabansi for the 2017 camp season. The Assistant Counselor (AC) program is a leadership opportunity open to teens ages 16 & 17 only who have completed a CIT session. AC's will perform a variety of camp functions including but not limited to:

- Planning and leading all-camp activities
- Assisting counselors with trips out of camp
- Assisting with cabin group activities
- Helping with minimal custodial duties around camp
- Aiding in activity setup and cleanup
- Assisting in the Kitchen
- Maintenance Projects around Camp

Program Requirements

- Teens must be at least 16 years of age by the first day of their selected session.
- Assistant Counselors will be expected to uphold all staff policies and procedures including behavioral expectations.

Considerations

This program has limited openings. Applications will be considered through June 1, 2017 and must be complete upon submission.

Candidates for this program will be interviewed by the Camp Director after their application has been reviewed. Interviews will be conducted over the phone.

If you have any questions about the Assistant Counselor program or about completing the application materials, please contact camp at 715-276-7116.
